ADVANTAGE - ABSOLUTE RETURN GLOBAL, Class B (LU0453296237) a sub-fund of ADVANTAGE

Objectives and investment policy

The sub-fund primarily aims to provide to investors high return associated to a long investment by investing in a broad and extremely diversified selection of assets, such as fixed income securities, equities, derivatives, financial indices and other UCITS and/or UCI while respecting the principle of risk diversification. The sub-fund may also invest in structured products (e.g. transferable securities whose returns are linked to the performance of an index, transferable securities or a basket of transferable securities, or an undertaking for collective investment). All or a substantial portion of the assets of the sub-fund may at any time consist of cash, cash equivalent, deposits and/or money market instruments should the market conditions require so. The sub-fund will use derivatives to achieve the sub-fund's investment objective, including by taking synthetic short positions but may also use derivatives for hedging purposes to reduce volatility and mitigate risks. The sub-fund will be managed with the aim of having a target exposure of 130% of its net assets in relation to long exposure and up to 30% of its net assets in relation to short exposure. The sub-fund relative long/short exposure may vary and decrease overtime as opportunity and market condition change.

The sub-fund shall not invest more than 10% of its net assets into other UCITS or UCIs.

Investor may redeem shares of the sub-fund on demand provided that redemption request will only be treated on the bank business day in Luxembourg next following the day of receipt of such request (if such request is received the day before until 11.59 p.m.).

Income of this share class is reinvested (accumulated).

Recommendation

This fund may not be appropriate for investors who plan to withdraw their money within >6 years.

Risk and reward profile

The risk and reward indicator illustrates where the sub-fund is positioned in terms of its possible risks relative to its potential rewards. The higher the sub-fund's position on this scale, the greater the possible reward, but also the greater risk of losing money.

This risk indicator is calculated using historical data, which cannot be used as a prediction for the future risk profile of the sub-fund. Therefore, the risk and reward category shown is not guaranteed to remain unchanged and the categorisation of the sub-fund may shift over time.

Even if the sub-fund is in the lowest risk class you can lose money, as no investments are entirely risk free.

The risk and reward indicator of the sub-fund is five (5) and is consistent with the profile of the sub-fund, that invests mainly in equity and fixed income securities. The sub-fund limits the overall risk by diversifying among sectors, issuers, duration, so as to achieve a desired balance among risk and potential rewards. The present risk and reward indicator of five (5) is appropriate for a combined, open strategy of mixing equity and fixed income securities, and consistent with historical evidence (observations of past return variations).

The risk and reward indicator does not take into consideration the following risks, which can affect the sub-fund:

- Liquidity risk: which may occur when investments are made in financial instruments that could have a lower level of liquidity in some circumstances for example in the case of a market crash or default of issuers.
- Counterparty risk: which may occur due to the exposure the sub-fund might have through contracts with third parties.
- Operational risk: which may occur due to technical issues for example natural disasters, misunderstandings and fraud.

For further information concerning the risks of the sub-fund, please consult the prospectus, which is available at the registered office of the fund and on www.advantagesicav.net.

Charges
